

Fake News, Conspiracy and Truth

Understanding misinformation and how to see through it

Professionals | 60 - 90 mins

Who: A workshop to complement our Fake News for young people, this session can bolt on to youth sessions or stands alone according to need. The session addresses teachers and other professionals supporting young people on this increasingly complex and sensitive topic. The session tackles perceptions around fake news, conspiracy theories and extremism, and how to support young people in and out of the classroom to build resilience to fake news, conspiracy theory and related extremist ideologies.

Delivery Options: Face to face and/or online interactive webinars (platform flexible)

How: Participants are encouraged to question and critically engage on the topic of fake news, conspiracy theories and extremism on and offline, and how perception may be manipulated. Signposting around next steps is included in this impactful workshop. The workshop deepens knowledge, focuses on practical tools, and builds confidence in a safe space using interactive and engaging content.

Resources: Slides, activities, presentation materials, online portal access for staff post-delivery.
