So, you've done the WRAP training – now what? Still feel you want your organisation to really engage with the following and top up your learning? The material is engaging, interactive and filled with clear practical outcomes.

Learning Objectives

Participants are encouraged to question and critically engage on the complex topic of extremism, exploitative relationships and violence within the context of harm -both face to face and online - and how they may be manipulated. This will be grounded in the work of professionals working with vulnerable young people. Practical steps around holding conversations with young people, accessing support from partners locally, implications of disclosures and signposting around next steps will be incorporated as a practical aspect in this interactive workshop.
